

1. The following table summarizes the results of the study. The first column lists the variables, the second column lists the descriptive statistics, and the third column lists the regression coefficients.