However, if it becomes necessary for a Next-Generation AI Fellow to suspend or extend the period of support due to childbirth, childcare, illness, studying abroad, [Y" [W W Y W Yrcumstances will be considered before a decision is made.

(2) The stipends are taxable as a miscellaneous income. Therefore, every Next-Generation AI Fellow is required to file an income tax return.

Furthermore, if a student with dependents (parents, etc.) is provided with a Next-Generation AI Fellowship, they may need to be excluded from their dependents. Therefore, if a student is selected as a Next-Generation AI Fellow, they should inform their dependents (parents, etc.) that the stipends they receive will be treated as a miscellaneous income under the Japanese tax law. For the procedures required to change your health insurance or dependents, please contact the person in charge at the workplace of your dependents (parents, etc.).

(3) For a period of up to three years (or four years for doctoral students of the 4-Year Ph.D. Programs) after a Next-Generation AI [[[" [[WY 900,000 JPY per year will be funded from the academic year in which they have been selected as a Next-Generation AI Fellow. And the maximum amount of research expenses for a fiscal year in which the period of support is six months or less is 450,000 JPY.

(4) For international students who are currently overseas and are provisionally selected for the Next-Generation AI Fellowship, as a general rule, the stipends and research funds will begin to be provided starting from the month following the Fellow has entered Japan and is able to commute to the University campus. Additionally, after support begins, the stipends will not be provided for any month during which the student is entirely absent from Japan for personal reasons unrelated to study or research.

2. Next-Generation AI Fellow Obligations

Next-Generation AI Fellows shall fulfill the following obligations to receive support:

- (1) Develop a yearly research plan for each academic year and concentrate on research activities based on the plan.
- (2) Participate in programs offered by the University related to improving research capabilities.
- (3) Report the progress of research activities to the University regularly.
- (4) Cooperate in various surveys. In particular, it is essential to cooperate with follow-up surveys on the career for 10 years after completion of the program.

3. Next-Generation AI Fellow Cancellation

If a Next-Generation AI Fellow falls under any of the following cases, the Next-Generation AI Fellow will be withdrawn, and the provision of stipends and research funds shall be discontinued:

(1) The Fellow's annual income (including income from paid internships, RA/TA, part-time work, etc.) is less than 10 million JPY or more per year. Note that this annual income refers to stable incomes, such as standard salaries/remunerations, and does not include income received from paid internships, RA/TA, part-time work, etc.

(2) The Fellow receives a Research Fellowship for Young Scientists from the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science, a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for international students, or any other scholarship/s from their home country.

(3) The Fellow's fulfillment of the Next-Generation AI Fellow Obligations is deemed insufficient.

(4) The Fellow requests to cancel their Fellowship.

(5) The Fellow takes a leave of absence from the University. However, in the case of childbirth, childcare, illness, studying abroad, suspension and subsequent resumption of payments, and other such factors.

(6) The Fellow withdraws from, or is removed from the University.

(7) The Fellow does not meet the original eligibility requirements. (In this case, full-repayment of stipends and research funds is claimed.)

(8) The University decides that there is a valid reason to cancel the Fellowship.

4. Repayment of Excess Stipend Payments and Research Funds

If the period of support is shortened due to early completion, cancellation of support, etc., the payment of the stipends will be stopped at the end of the shortened support period, and any excess amount which has been paid will need to be returned. Also, in principle, the research funds will also need to be returned in proportion to the number of months the support period was shortened by.

5. Others

(1) It is possible to receive a salary via a RA/TA position, etc., or work part-time.

(2) The names of those who are selected as Next-Generation AI Fellows are listed in the application documents.

(3) Any personal information stated within the application documents, and any other necessary personal information provided by the graduate school to which an applicant belongs to, will be used only for the purposes of the selection of candidates, preparation for acceptance, education/research guidance, etc.
