

The Center for Peace, Hiroshima University,
224th Research Seminar

Airspace Tribunal & Topologies of Air

Monday, 9 December 2019
14:00-17:00 (open at 13:30)

Hiroashi-Senda Mirai-Soséi Center 3-1 ~3-3

Language: English..

Nick Grief

(via Skype)

Professor, Kent Law School Barrister practising from Doughty Street

Chambers, J, and...

International law, human rights and air law.

Andrew Hoskins

Interdisciplinary Research Professor, the College of Social Sciences, University of Glasgow

Media sociologist: media, memory, and conflict.

Shona Illingworth

Artist Reader in Arts, the University of Kent. Immersive video and multi-channel sound installations memory, cultural heritage and histories in social tension and trauma

Penelope Salecl

Professor, Psychology and Psychoanalysis Law, University of London

"Tyrr"

Participation is free for all. No need to register in advance.

Contact: The Center for Peace, Hiroshima University
Email: heiwa@hiroshima-u.ac.jp

Topologies of Air is commissioned by The Wapping Project. Supported by Arts Council England and Journal of Digital War..