3: Two credits acquired from the four subjects are required.

Two credits acquired from the three subjects are required.
 Two credits acquired from the three subjects are required.
 With basic seminars offered in Public Law, Phivate Law, Political Science, and Sociology, students may take subjects that total up to four credits: two credits in the first semester, and two credits in the second semester.
 Students may take this subject repeatedly for up to eight credits.

^{*7:} Up to 12 credits may be added to the credits required for graduation from another program.

^{*8:} When a special lecture is offered, the name, number of credits, and academic year in which the lecture is offered will be decided by the Faculty Meeting on each occasion.

^{9:} Since some class subjects are not offered every year, students must check to see which subjects will be offered in the class schedule for the School of Law announced in each academic year and other relevant materials.
