

The 3rd TA Seminar in 2021 「To be active as a Hirodai TA」 Outline of Implementation

Organizing by Center for Academic Practice and Resource

Objectives :

This seminar provides an opportunity for graduate students who would like to be involved in educational activities at Hiroshima University as TAs to learn practically on the theme of "To be active as a Hirodai TA".

In this seminar, an international graduate student who has worked as a TA will share his experience as a Hirodai TA in English. If you would like to work as a TA but are worried about it, if you would like to know more about the Hirodai TA system, or to hear from someone with experience, we are looking forward to your participation. It will be held in English, so international students are welcome to attend.

Date and time : Wednesday, October 27, 2021 16:20~17:05

Venue : Conducted online using Microsoft Teams

Target : Graduate students who have QTA certification

Language : English

Program :

16:20 Opening Remarks

Introduction of the English version of the Hirodai TA Handbook :

Cho Shinichi (Faculty, Center for Academic Practice and Resource)

16:30 Introduction to TA Activities 「To be or not to be TF」 :

KANG KAIXIANG D1, Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences

(TF, Student staff, Center for Academic Practice and Resource)

16:55 Question and answer session

17:05 Closing Remarks

How to participate : Please register at (1) and attend at (2) by the time.

①Application Form :

※ Application deadline: Thursday, October 21, 2021

②Seminar URL :

※ Before clicking on the above link, please do the following

・Log in to the Teams client with your IMC account.

・Before using Teams in a browser, log in to Office365 with your IMC account.

Contact :

Center for Academic Practice and Resource

Tel : 082-424-4429, 4341 (Nakayama, Nakahiro) Mail : capr@office.hiroshima-u.ac.jp