

Beware of Predatory Journals!

Submission guidelines for open access journals

This session would describe how to select a suitable journal for submission, the types and advantages and disadvantages of open access publications, the dangers of predatory publishers and conferences, and how to avoid them.

Date & Times

Monday, January 24, 2022

p.m. -

p.m.

Participants: Researchers of Hiroshima Univ.
*Graduate students are welcome.
This is a faculty development program.

Registration:

<https://my.demio.com/ref/11fWxSS63Sr1VJXv>

*Once you have registered, you will see a link to the webinar.

■ Viewing environment

Chrome, Firefox, Safari, or Edge is available for streaming
(Chrome is recommended)

Corresponding version:

Chrome 55, Firefox 53, Safari 12.1, Edge 42, or above

↑ Register from here

Instructor

Yosuke Tomita

BSc (Health Sciences) Gunma University; MSc (Health Sciences) Gunma University; PhD (Rehabilitation Sciences) McGill University

Dr. Tomita is an assistant professor in the Department of Physical Therapy, Takasaki University of Health and Welfare. He also works as a peer reviewer for multiple scientific journals, including Journal of Biomechanics, Motor Control, Journal of Neuroengineering and Rehabilitation, Scientific Reports.