

Graduation Guidelines for Doctoral Students in the International Education Development Program

Approved on September 26, 2022

Revised on March 24, 2023

by the International Education Development Program Faculty

This document shows the overall procedures regarding the preparation and the screening of the doctoral dissertation for the doctoral students in the International Education Development Program (hereinafter “the Program”).

(Students should also check the basic policies to complete the doctoral program of the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences (hereinafter “GSHSS”) shown in the relevant regulations: the Hiroshima University Graduate School Regulations, the Hiroshima University Degree Regulations, the Hiroshima University By-Laws of the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the Regulations of the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences Concerning the Conferral of Degrees.)

1. Notification of Research Title

Upon approval from their main supervisor, students must submit a “Notification of Research Title” to the International Education Development Program Faculty.

January 7 for March graduation or by July 5 for September graduation:

Dissertation (temporarily bound acceptable): One copy

Application for Review of Dissertation: One copy

List of Publications: One copy

Summary of the Dissertation (Summary of Dissertation Contents): One copy and PDF

Resume: One copy

Reference Papers: One copy

Submit one copy of each reference papers listed in the above-mentioned “ List of Publications.”

Doctoral Dissertation Submission and Publication Confirmation (Application Form): One copy

- Students must write their finalized dissertation title in the documents above.

5. Main Screening and Final Examination of Dissertation

- Students must undergo a “Main Screening and Final Examination of Dissertation”