◇ University Overview

◇ Outline and Characteristics of the Course for Teacher Training Students

① Characteristics of the Program

The Division of Educational Sciences in the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences aims to contribute for educational research, practices, and human resources development from early childhood education towards the construction of a sustainable and peaceful world. The Educational Development Teacher Educators Program and the Educational Studies Program are prestigious institutes in the area of education in Japan and the world. We have nurtured a great number of leading teachers, teacher educators and educational researchers on early childhood education, primary and secondary education, special needs education, and higher education. The International Education Development Center has widely contributed for the human resources development.

◇ Follow-up for graduates

Hiroshima University has 23 overseas bases in 15 countries and regions. And, Overseas Alumni Associations have been organized in nine countries and regions for networking those who have graduated or completed their studies including teacher training students. We will soon make a new platform for the collaboration of overseas bases, alumni associations, companies, and related organizations. As the first model, the Hiroshima University Alumni Association Indonesia Chapter was established in 2022.

Even after completing their studies, teacher training students keep in touch with their main supervisors and actively devote themselves with high expertise to the educational development in their home countries.

* Overseas Bases: China (Beijing, Shanghai, Chongqing, Changchun, Qinhuangdao), Taiwan, South Korea, Mongolia, Indonesia (Jakarta, Bandung), Vietnam, Myanmar, Cambodia, Russia, Germany (Münster, Saarland), Lithuania, Mexico (Mexico City, Guanajuato), Brazil, Kenya, Egypt (Cairo, Galala)

*Overseas Alumni Associations: China (Beijing, Shanghai, Dalian), Taiwan, South Korea, Indonesia (Jakarta, Bandung, Surabaya, Makassar), Vietnam, Myanmar, Cambodia, Malaysia, Brazil

◇ Accommodations

During the half-year of the Japanese language education period, the International House (University Dorm for International Students) is available. During the specialized training period, there are some options of off-campus housing, such as apartments managed by Hiroshima University Coop, public housings, and private apartments. Applications for the accommodation will be accepted by online form or e-mail before arriving in Japan (around July).

In order to cover living expenses and set-up costs until the time of the first scholarship payment, it is suggested that students bring a minimum of ¥ 100,000 with them to Japan.
