

International Workshop for Philosophy of Peace - Philosophy of Peace in History: Kant in Hiroshima 2024 -

On: Saturday, October 19, 2024

At: Higashi-Senda Campus of Hiroshima University (SENDA LAB, Conference Room 3).

Organized by: Hiroshima University Project Research Center for Applied Ethics

Contact: Takahiro Kiriara (kirihara@hiroshima-u.ac.jp)

13:00 Start

Special Lectures

13:10-14:20 Matthias Lutz-Bachmann (Goethe University Frankfurt)

14:20-15:30 Soraya Nour Sckell (NOVA School of Law)

Presentations and Discussions

15:40-16:20 Morals and Politics toward Perpetual Peace: Thinking together with Kant in Hiroshima in 2024

Toshiro Terada (Sophia University)

16:20-17:00 Reconciliation with Reality: Significance of Telling a Truth

Tomoki Hazama (Hiroshima University)

17:00-17:40 Compromise Method for Dealing with Unjustifiable Actions in Walzer's Political Thought An Preliminary Essay for Overcoming the Limitation of Just War Theory

Junya Hamai (National Institute of Technology, Niihama College)

17:40-18:20 Reconstructing Kant's Political Theory as a Philosophy of Peace: Historical Contexts and the Moral Philosophical Foundation

Takahiro Kiriara (Hiroshima University)

