Most courses are taught in Korean, but a variety of courses are offered in English. The list of courses taught in English will be available one or two months prior to each semester. The list will be sent to all accepted exchange students by email with instructions on course registration. Exchange students can take up to 18 academic credits per semester. If students would like to learn Korean language, they can participate in the Korean Language Program during the semester at a discounted price.

All our courses are credit-bearing courses and are acknowledged at most university and institutions. However, it is better that students consult academic officials at their home universities about credit transfer prior to the program begins. It is students' responsibility to consult properly, and it is their home university's authority to decide on the credit transfer.

All exchange students are automatically assigned to a room (shared) in on-campus dormitories. The dormitory fee for one semester is around KRW 1,700,000 which includes three meals per day at the cafeteria. Students can find accommodation outside the campus if they want.

* You will receive the payment bill when you check in. The payment has to be made only in KRW cash, so please make sure you have enough KRW when you arrive in Korea.

All exchange students are required to enroll Korean National Health Insurance. They will be automatically enrolled on the same day of alien registration after they arrive in Korea. More detailed information will be provided to the accepted exchange students.

PKNU student buddy will help exchange students adjust to a new life at PKNU. PKNU buddy will contact exchange students via Email prior to their arrival in Korea.
