General Information

General information	Innovative. Interdisciplinary. International. Since 1477. These have been the University of Tübingen’s guiding principles in research and teaching ever since it was founded. With this long tradition, the University of Tübingen is one of the most respected universities in Germany. Its institutional strategy was successfully selected for funding in the Excellence Initiative sponsored by the German federal and state governments, making Tübingen one of Germany’s eleven universities distinguished with that title of excellence. Tübingen has also proven its status as a leading research university in many national and international competitions – in key rankings Tübingen is listed among the best universities for the Humanities and Social Sciences as well as for Science and Medicine. With its broad spectrum of subjects, the University of Tübingen provides a wealth of opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration. And such close cooperation on research extends beyond the University and around the world. The University of Tübingen has joint research projects at all levels with other institutions of higher education, with research institutes and with industry. The University’s excellence in research offers optimal study conditions to students who come to Tübingen, combined with the opportunity to emphasize individual interests along the way. The attractive study environment is reinforced by many additional services, such as the Language Center, interdisciplinary lectures in the Studium Generale and the state-of-the-art University Library. The University motto speaks for itself: attempto – I dare!
Academic calendar	In general: Classes in the summer and winter semester start on the Monday of April (summer semester) or October (winter semester) which is closest to the 15th of that month. Classes end on the Sunday 13 weeks after the term starts (summer semester) and 18 weeks after the term starts in the winter semester. Dates for the Winter Semester 2024/2025: Oct. 14, 2024 - Feb. 8, 2025 no lectures on November 1, Dec. 21, 2024 - Jan. 6, 2025 Dates for the Summer Semester 2025: April 14, 2025 - July 26, 2025 no lectures on April 18, April 21, May 1, May 29; June 9 - 14 (except Medical Faculty), June 19, 2025 Most exams take place in the last week of the lecture period until the first 2-3 weeks of the lecture-free period. However, the exact exam period depends on the departments or faculties.
Number of credits or units that students are recommended to complete in one semester/term	Two lectures and two seminars per semester are recommended. In addition, students can attend courses in the area of German as a foreign language or other transdisciplinary classes. We recommend as guideline a workload which does not exceed 30 ECTS / semester.

Course and Language Information

Language of instruction – Are courses taught in English available?	The main language of instruction at the University of Tübingen is German. The University is, however, constantly increasing the number of courses taught in English: Please see our list of English taught classes (available ca 2 months before semester start) or contact the applicable academic advisor .
Language requirements	We expect our partners to nominate students who are on a B 2 / with a completed B1 level of German (in case they would like to take German-taught classes at one of the faculties) or on a B 2 level / with a completed B1 level of English (in case they would like to take English-taught classes). The levels refer to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). We do not require proof of language proficiency, unless : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Law studies (all levels), ethnology (B.A. level), Chemistry/ Biochemistry (B.Sc. level): a proof of German completed B1/ on B2 by all exchange students • Biology/Molecular Medicine/Pharmacy (B.Sc. level): a proof of German completed B1/on B2 for students from overseas (no language proof needed for Erasmus or CIVIS students)
Course Information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • General course information and list of English taught classes • Online Course Handbook ALMA (course catalogue for all courses in German and English) • German language and Culture classes at the German as a Foreign Language and Intercultural Programs Department, see below. • TÜ-VIP (Tübingen Virtual Intercultural Program) A 10-week online course program offering intercultural and language courses. It is for free, students can collect ECTS and have chances to receive a scholarship for an exchange stay at Tübingen University.
Are there any special language courses for exchange students before or during the semester ?	Yes, more than 50 different courses per semester. You will find them on the website of the Division German as a Foreign Language and Intercultural Programs . Participants do not have to pay any fees, only course material, field trips etc. We offer free beginner's courses in German for exchange students (A1/A2 level), but please be aware that spaces are limited and we cannot guarantee any spaces. In addition to pre-semester intensive languages courses , students can take up to three classes during the semester with German as a Foreign Language and Intercultural Programs .

Accommodation

Is university-administered accommodation available to exchange students?	The student dormitories are not administered by the University, but by the so-called "Studierendenwerk", the Student Service Organization, which is not affiliated with the University. However, the University of Tübingen has a yearly quota of rooms that are reserved solely for exchange students. More info: Accommodation. Please see for details of the dormitories the Overview of residence halls by the Studierendenwerk. All rooms for exchange students are fully furnished single rooms with shared kitchen and usually shared bathrooms. We strongly recommend students to opt for student housing because of the difficult and expensive private housing market in Tübingen.
Where do students send their accommodation application?	Students can apply for housing online directly on the Website of the Studierendenwerk . Contracts will be available for the duration of the whole semester only. There is a deposit of 600€ due upon arrival.

Is accommodation available over semester breaks?	Yes. Students can stay in their rooms until the end of the contract. Dorms are open year-round, students do not have to move out during breaks.
