1. Support to Next-Generation Fellows

(1) In order to support the Next-Generation Fellows and allow them to concentrate on their studies and/or research, stipends will be provided for up to three years (or four years for doctoral students of the 4-Year Ph.D. Programs) after their enrollment*. Based on the principle monthly amount of 190,000 JPY provided in May, July, September, November, January, and March. The detailed schedule of payment will be announced after adoption.

And fellows with outstanding academic performance in the initiative of New SPRING at Hiroshima University will be provided further 120,000 JPY as HU-SPRING Award in March of the year.

* If a Next-

However, if it becomes necessary for a Next-Generation Fellow to suspend or extend the period of support due to childbirth, childcare, illness, studying abroad, considered before a decision is made.

(2) The stipends are taxable as a miscellaneous income. Therefore, every Next-Generation Fellow is required to file an income tax return.

Furthermore, if a student with dependents (parents, etc.) is provided with this Program for Next-Generation, they may need to be excluded from their dependents. Therefore, if a student is selected as a Next-Generation Fellow, they should inform their dependents (parents, etc.) that the stipends they receive will be treated as a miscellaneous income under the Japanese tax law. For the procedures required to change your health insurance or dependents, please contact the person in charge at the workplace of your dependents (parents, etc.).

(3) For a period of up to three years (or four years for doctoral students of the 4-Year Ph.D. Programs) after a Next-Generation Fellow is selected, 200,000 JPY per year will be funded from the academic year in which they have been selected as a Next-Generation Fellow. And the maximum amount of research expenses for a fiscal year in which the period of support is six months or less is 200,000 JPY.

(4) For international students who are currently overseas and are selected for the Next-Generation Fellow, as a general rule, the stipends and research funds will begin to be provided starting from the month following the Fellow has entered Japan and is able to commute to the University campus. Additionally, after support begins, the stipends will not be provided for any month during which the student is entirely absent from Japan for personal reasons unrelated to study or research.

2. Next-Generation Fellow Obligations
