

"È

"È

D Radiation survey is conducted on evacuated patients in buses. The buses are full of mostly elderly patients. (6:00 a.m., March 14, Minamisoma City)

D! Evacuees have been transported to Soma Public Health and Welfare Office by police vehicles but are stranded there, waiting for their evacuation sites to be decided. (10:00 p.m., March 14)

D" A scene of Futaba machi photographed from inside a car headed for an off-site center near the nuclear power plant. Collapsed buildings are seen all over the place. (Just after 1:00 p.m., March 14)

D# The Radiation Emergency Medicine Coordination Conference was set up at the Fukushima Prefectural Government Hall. The Conference functions as headquarters for conducting radioactive contamination screening and developing a system for providing radiation medicine for residents. (8:30 p.m., March 15, Fukushima City)

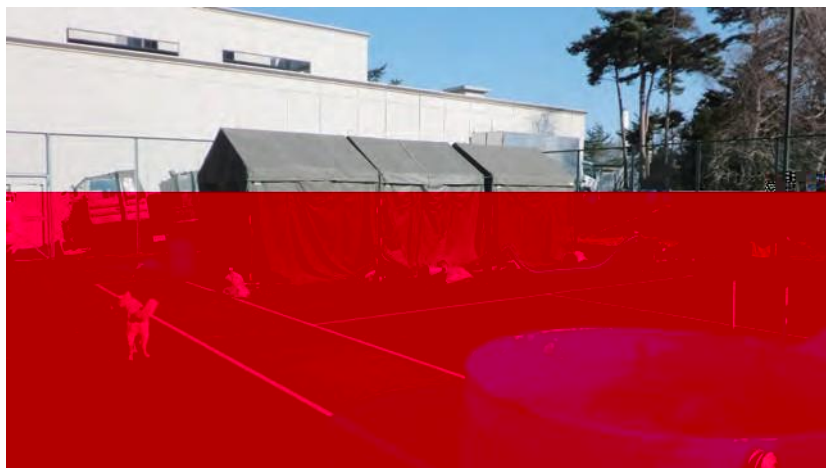

"i

"i

"i

D$Staffmembers transport injured persons to Fukushima Medical University Hospital by helicopter (Just after 10:50 a.m., March 16. On the grounds of Fukushima No. 2 Nuclear Power Plant,Narahamachi Fukushima Prefecture

D'Decontaminationtents are set up on a tennis court located in the corner-of J Village. (April 5,-Village,Narahamachi Fukushima Prefecture)

D&Insideof JVillage, a facility functioning as a frome base for SDF members and other workers engaged in operations in response to the Fukushima No. 1 Nuclear Power Plant accident (April 9JVillage)

D'Protectivemasks and shoe covers that workers are required to wear when engaging in operations at Fukushima No. 1 and No. 2 Nuclear Power Plants (April 9. JVillage)

"Đ

"Ñ

D(Residents put on protective suits at a gymnasium that functions as a relay point for their temporary return home. (June 14, Kawachimura Municipal Gymnasium, Fukushima Prefecture)

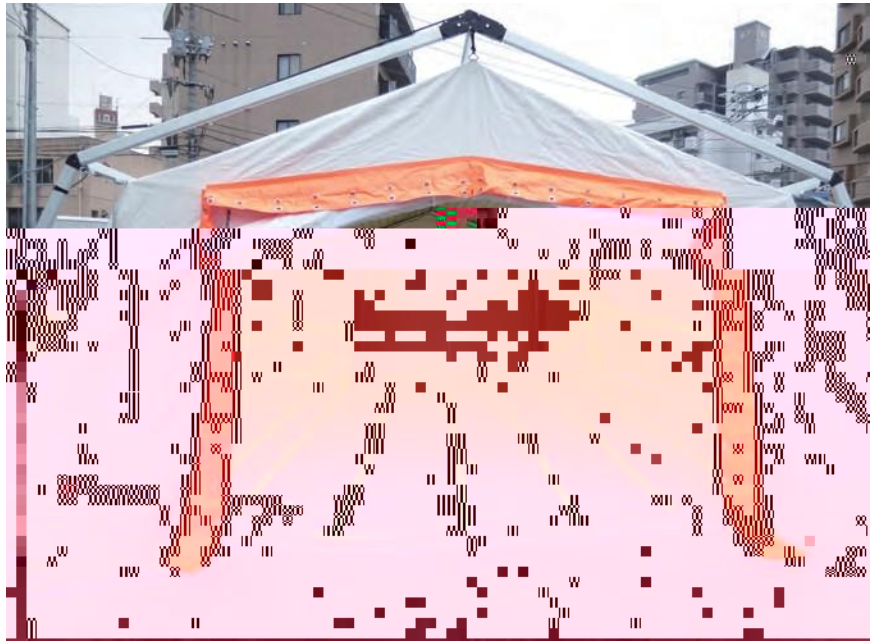

D) After their temporary return home, residents get off the bus and go back to the gymnasium for radiation measurement and other tests. (June 14, Kawachimura Municipal Gymnasium)

D*A large decontamination tent was set up to admit radiation-exposed patients in need of advanced medical care. This tent remained here from March 16 to June 13. (On the premises of Hiroshima University Kasumi Campus)

D-In a meeting hall of emergency temporary housing in Fukushima City, Professor Kenji Kamiya of Hiroshima University (center) and Professor Yajima of Fukushima Medical University answer questions from evacuees from Kawachimura. (November 26)

"Ó

"ò

Major Places of On site Activities

